way wage award will be handed tendency displayed by the industrials, including equipments, oils and am mousts, was found in the money sit-buying of standard rallway shares that if bullish activity should be re-in the ferencon stock market, and sumed, money rates will soar.

As it was, money opened and rethey showed gains ranging from substantial fractions to nearly two points, in spite of the fact that all

BANKING AND FINANCIAL

What Is Accurate Market Information Worth?

·Have you been depending on uncertain statistics, quotations, informa-tion, etc., to guide you in the pur-chase of stocks? Do you want to know more about the securities you hold?

Only an organization with our wide experience, extending over a period of 17 years, through all sorts of market conditions, business depressions, economic disturbances or "bul movements, can keep you, the in-wester, adequately posted. That's Why Gur SEMI-ANNUAL

STOCK OUOTATION RECORD

just off the press, may be considered especially timely and valuable. It gives the High and Low on over a thousand stocks, from January 1st to July 1st, 1920, together with complete dividend record and corporate and other statistical information on issues traded in on the New York Curb and Just send us your name and address on a postal. No obligation.

WHITE DESK 30 Chas. A. Stoneham & Co.

41 Broad Street, New York BRANCHES & Chicago, Datroit, Milwardee, Toronto, Cieveland, Harstord, Established 1903. No Promotions.

LIBERTY BONDS

the family footwear.

Welt Bluchers

$5.00 Value

WALL STREET

Other groups of stocks were being pressed for sale.

The builtsh demonstration in the railroad stocks undoubtedly would have been more pronounced if it were not for the fact that Wall Street is still in the dark as to whether the Ad. Bissely wage increases will be retroactive. Also Basks field the case, the beneficial effect of the Alia. Challen of the mark, the long awaited rail-way wage award will be handed.

Sufficient reason for the reactionary as book lags way wage award will be handed.

road rate increases on both passenger folled to show expected improve. An increase and freight traffic will be announced almost immediately thereafter.

These expectations led to strong a sharp drop in surplus reserves, An H & I.

As it was, money opened and renewed to-day at 8 per cent. Cliques who had arranged for demonstrations in their favorite issues to-day were forced to quickly change their plans.

Expert testimony given before the
Am. Wood

Expert testimony given before the
Am. Wood

Am. C. C. Company

Expert testimony for the control of the control o

Interstate Commerce Commission that railroads will need 1,080,000 freight cars, to cost $3,000,000,000, within the next five years failed to stimulate equipment shares. They showed losses of a point and more.

Talk that big steel manufacturers may have to follow the lead of the American Woolen Company and close their mills incellnitely because of the less. Steel transportation tie-up was not taken seriously. The possibility of such action was considered extremely remate, leading steel issues reacted about a point.

Mexican oil issues were sold by pro- Casie Cent. Oil. they have called a general strike in that city, which already has practi-cally tied up the port. The foreign exchange markets were steady. Demand sterling ruled at $3.941-4, and was uninfluenced by receipt of an additional $3,100,000 gold consigned to a local banking

LIBERTY BONDS. Liberty 3 1-2s opened 91.20, up 6; let 4 1-4s, 86.30, up 20; 2d 4 1-4s 85.70, off 6; 2d 4 1-4s 89.70; 4th 4 1-4s 85.98, up 2; Victory Loan 3 3-4s, 95.98, 4 3-4s 95.98, off Z.

FOREIGN EXCHANGE STEADY. Demand Storling opened #.94 1-2, Comp. Too, & list, 404, inchanged; franc checks, 11.85, off Count Ck. Occ., 60% oc., list checks, 16.57, off 5c; Helgian Com, Int. Cal. Min. 13% unchanged; franc checks, 11.85, off conel Cig. Corp. 6955 bc; lire checks, 16.57, off 5c; Belgian cables, 11.05, unchanged; Swiss cables, 5.54, up. 1; marks, demand, cao, Caad ... 12% bles, 5.54, up. 1; marks, demand, corp. 12% corp. 12 bles lower at 1620; Norwegian krona cables, 1670; Denmark krona cables, 1668; United States dollars on Canadas demand, 8790; Argentine pesos, Con. Test. Con. demand, 1.97; cables, 1.0870; Sterling fed Rule, Con. Test. Con. demand, 1.941-2, cables 1.951-4; Pen & Rio Gr pf. demand 1657, cables 16.55; guilders demand 351-4, cables 353-8.

CURB.

CONSTRUCTION OF THE PROPERTY OF THE PARTY OF TAXABLE PROPERTY OF TAXABLE PARTY OF TAXA

Opening steady—Int. Pet., 35; Re-tail Candy, 14 1-2—15; Boat, 12—13; Marac, 28 1-2—28 2-4; Simms. PURDY & CO., Marac. 28 1-2-28 3-4; Simms. 16 6-8-18 3-4; White, 19-19 1-2; Asphalt 75 1-2-76; Carib, 18-19.

Dress Pumps

$1.75 Value

$3.99 $4.99 $5.99

Munson's Last, U. S. Government Specification Shoes

Guaranteed Genuine

100% Leather

The graceful models and faultless workmanship that distinguish these shoes have won the praise of every show them in an endless diversity of fashionable New York woman,

-14th Street Armory Sale-

Money Back if Not Satisfied Unquestionably the time to buy shoes is NOW—and the place is at the 14th Street Armory. Frank & Pinera Co., Inc., Exporters of Shoes and Leathers, have over half a million pairs of shoes to sell AT LESS THAN THE ACTUAL COST AT THE PACTORIES. This sale has been attended by thousands of mothers every day since it first opened, a fortnight ago. Let us snow YOU how to save half on Smart Shoes for Little Folk—Half Price!

Sizes 5 to 8 Sizes 5 to 8

$6.50 Value $5.50 Value

$2.29 $9.69

$2.35 79c

Child's and Child's and

Women's Pumps, Ties and Boots

Men's Genuine Goodyear Welt Shoes

$5.95 Values $6.49

Navy Specification Shoes ($15 Values) $8.88

Child's Welt Bal Shoes | Welt Blucher Shoes

COMPLETE STOCK QUOTATIONS-2 P. M.

101 is Mississing Par Pore Marquetse Chino Cop. Colum. Gengini, ... Union Hag & Pap. 11% U. S. Menl, & len., 58% Risk Rubber, tinston W & W ... Gen, Chem. 20% Wabash pf. A..... 21% Wabash pf. B..... 62% Western Maryland.

RAIL TARIFF RAISE DECISION EXPECTED OF THIS MONTH HERE

Interstate Commerce Commission July Bids Fair to Surpass the to Begin Hearings To-Day on Amount of Increase.

WASHINGTON, July 12 .- Two decisions expected to have a vital and far reaching effect on the transportation system of the country probably will be handled down this week by July bids fair to equal if not surpass the Interstate Commerce Commission.

June's appailing death list of all city-owned vacant real property.

"The question as to whether the city had the right to engage in such an enterprise was referred to the Corporation Counsel, and on April 6.

June's appailing death list of ninety-declared in part, as follows:

These decisions are: thom a return of 6 per cent, on property investment as guaranteed by the Transportation Act.

Answer to protest against continuation of the 30-day coal priority order which restricts the use of open top sist Street. freight cars to coal shipments from June 21. Formal conferences will be begun within the commission to-day to de-termine the question of increased rates. No official statement has come from the commission on the question, but it is intimated that the members are disposed to grant in-creases as follows: Official classifi-cation territory or Eastern roads, 30 per cent.; Western classification, 24 per cent.; Southern classification, 31 or cent.

In the original demands submitted to 432 West Broadway. the commission by the railroads an average increase of 28 per cent.

which it was estimated would increase the revenue by $1,017,000,000, July 5—James Sullivan, forty, 45614 fugion Street. was asked. If the above increases are permitted by the commission, it will mean a spiraling of existing rates by an average increase of 27% per

CHINA'S OFFER IS REFUSED.

Pekin Pald Payment of $45,000 for Reimert Murder is Insufficient.

PEKIN, June 27 .- An unofficial ten of $45,000 reported to have been der of $45,000 reported to have been made by the Chinese Government as compensation for the murder of Rev. W. A. Reimert, American Missionary of the Yochow Reformed Church by retireating Government troops, has been refused by the American Legation. The logation informed the Chinese Foreign Office that a money settlement was not sufficient and insisted that the Government hold General Chang Ching. Military Governor of the provinc lunan, personally responsible for re to provide protection.

DIED.

BERNARD, FREDERICK. Services a CAMPBELL FUNERAL CHURCH Tues day 11 A. M., under auspices of th

MILLER, STRATFORD, CAMPBELL PU NERAL CHURCH, Tuesday, 2 P. M.

> FUNEBAL DIRECTORS. "Campbell Service" Call "Columbus 8200" THE FUNERAL CHURCH,"Inc.

1970 Broadway at 66th St.

July 7-Henry Trachel, seventy, No. 137 Taylor Street, West New Brighton. Rainbow Division Holds Rennton BIRMINGHAM, Ala., July 12 .- The rat annual rounion of the famous Rainbow Division began here to-day with thousands of former soldiers and visitors in attendance. The veterans were welcomed by city and State offinely series and the British demand that the ships fly the British flag, whereupon the prospect a positive section sellers proceed a positive flag.

Bronz.

Queens.

Richmond.

31 KILLED IN 9 DAYS

July 1-Bernard Evans, fifty-two, No.

July 1-Mary Mulligan, eight, No. 2191

July 1-Paul Moffl, three, No. 441 East

July 2-Peter Olsen, fifty-nine, No. 636 Washington Street.

July 2-George Callahan, seven, No. 44 Morton Street.

July 2-Philip Locullo, seven, No. 41 Oliver Street. July, 4-Eva Siegel, sixty-seven, No. 7

July 5-Joseph Williams, fourteen. No. 1893 First Avenue.

July 6-Louis Rejou, six, No. 230 East 76th Street.

July 6-Dominick Timbore, forty-eight, No. 194 Chrystie Street.

Brooklyn.

3161 Broadway.

Eighth Avenue.

ace to Tenants in Delays. Henry H. Curran, President of the Borough of Manhattan, made public yesterday a letter be sent to Gov.

In Letter to Governor, Borough President Points Men-

CURRAN REQUESTS

AN EXTRA SESSION

Smith Saturday, asking that a special session of the Legislature be called this summer to consider housing conditions in this city and enact statutes to remedy them. Mr. Curran is particularly desirous that the Legislature take up the question of amending the State Con- Tersan stitution so as to give the city power to build municipal apartment houses on its own land and rent the apartments to citizens on moderate terms. SEGIN THIS THRILLING STORY

Any change in the Constitution TO-DAY. should be made at the earliest possible moment, he hords, as at best will be late in 1921 before any change could become operative,

The Borough President believes that while the Anti-Rent Profiteering Laws enacted last winter are bene-31% ficial, the real remedy lies in the construction of houses, and he is of the opinion that the city can do much in say this regard while private capital holds back because of the high cost of ma-

"I think that the scarcity of homes here in New York is an emergency that fully warrants an extra session of the Legislature," said Mr. Curran-"If such a session is called and the Legislature acts on the amendment to the Constitution, as I have suggested, that amendment will come before the next Legislature for final consideration. The matter can then be decided ily removed, and it was not long unat the polls not later than November, til Tarsan had exposed that part of

until the next regular session of to-Legislature then, under the laws of enough imbedded to prevent the stake the State, final action will have to from falling into the excavation. Then be delayed until a new Senate is he turned his attention to an adelected. The people in that case will not be able to vote on the question re-fore November, 1923. The shortage of housing of an emergency that, uccording to the most conservative estimates, will be with us for at least 8% five years, and two years' delay in 26% obtaining adequate relief measures may work inestimable harm.

Mr. Curran made it plain that he considers it necessary to enact other remedial measures, and that these combination with the plan he has in mind he hopes will tide New York over until building operations are rethe Interstate Commerce Commission.

These decisions are:

Amount of increase in freight rates of be permitted railroads to insure oughs during the period mentioned:

June's appalling death list of ninety-legal to fine types of the Acting Corporation Counsel, and on April 5.

June's appalling death list of ninety-legal to fine types of the Acting Corporation Counsel, and on April 5.

June's appalling death list of ninety-legal to fine Acting Corporation Counsel, and on April 5.

June's appalling death list of ninety-legal to fine Acting Corporation Counsel, and on April 5.

These decisions are:

The following thirty-one victims were killed in the various borough the period mentioned:

The following thirty-one victims were killed in the various borough the period mentioned:

parties.

"Municipal housing is one of the many grave industrial and social problems the great war has precipitated and which will require bold initiative and constructive legislation of a high order to meet and properly solve.

tion of a high order to meet and properly solve.

"Unhealthy living conditions, resulting from overcrowding, as is generally admitted, not only breed disease but constitute the chief cause for industrial unrest.

"To remedy these conditions, the Constitution (Article VIII., Section 10) should be amended in such manner as to permit the cities to incur indebtedness for the particular purpose."

"The hoard thereupon directed that a bill be prepared by the Corporation Counsel for introduction in the Legis-lature, and on April 13, 1920, such bill containing an amendment to the State Constitution, as recommended by Acting Comporation Counsel Nichol-son, was infroduced in the Senale by Senator Dunnigan, but owing to the late date it was introduced it failed

In view of the fact that this failure of passage,

July 9-James Sullivan, forty, 45615 Hudson Street. July 9-Angelo Satiero, five, No. 407 West 34th Street. July 9-Germania D'Ameca, six, No. 1998 Avenue A. will make it impossible to have such amendment acted upon within the current year, it will cause a delsy of two years, unless a special session of July 1—Edward Doyle, thirteen, No. 20 Lefferts Place, July 2—Walter Patterson, seven, No. 79 India Street, July 2—Thomas Irving, nine, No. 211 the Legislature be called to enact this ven. No. and other legislation on the subject.
"As the congestion in places of habitation is rapidly increasing, I Patterson, seven. No. 586 habitation is rapidly increasing, i respectfully ask that you call an extra session of the Legislature, at such date as you may determine, for the purpose of enabling the Legislature to consider the amendment to the State Constitution above referred to, and any other legislation which may Avenue.
No.

2—Louis Greco, eight, No. 273,
t Street.
4—Louis Heneger, fourteen. No.

July 4—Louis Beneger, fourteen. No. 546 Stone Avenue. July 4—John J. Costello, seven, No. 478 Vandervoort Avenue. July 5—Raymond Kronland, thirteen. No. 369 Stockton Street. July 6—Ida Dynes, sixty-five, No. 566 Cleveland Street, July 7—Dorothy McIntosh, six, No. 455 Bay Ridge Avenue. July 8—Silvia Bosenkranz, four, No. 230 New Jersey Avenue. Broaz. SHIPS TO GERMANS

BERLIN, July 12. - The Boersen Courier's Hamburg correspondents claims to have authority to confirm the report that British shipowners have offered to sell to German ship-July 1-Lillian Rosofsky, eight, No. July 2—Mary Grimm, thirty-eight, No. 1961; Freeman Avenue, L. I. City. July 6—Jacob Bfaff, fifty-eight, 4 Tompkins Place, Glendale.

cials and later two bronze tableta in pective sellers proposed a neutral flag.
The deal involves no working agreein the war were unveiled.

The deal involves no working agreement or restrictions.

Tarzan the Untamed Edgar Rice Burroughs

A New, Thrilling and Sensational Story of the Ape Man.

was rather surprised to note that Numa gave no evidence of anger at his approach. Once he turned a searching gage upon the ape-mar for a moment and then returned to the flesh of Bara. Targan felt of the stakes and tested them with his weight. He pulled upon them with them back and forth he could looses them; and then a new plan was suggested to him so that he fell to work one of the stakes which was im-bedded in the wall of the pit to al-most its entire length, leaving only joining stake and soon had it simi-larly exposed, after which he threw the noose of his grass rope over the two and swung quickly to the branch of the tree above. Here he gathered in the stack of the rope, bracing him-In the sinck of the rope, bracing him-self against the bole of the tree, and pulled steadily upward. Slowly the stakes rose from the trench in which they were imbedded and with them rose Numa's suspicion and growling. Was this some new encroachment won his ciphts and his liberties? He upon his rights and his liberties? He was puzzled and, like all lions, being shoreof temper, he was irritated. He

Before he left the valley of plenty he made several kills and carried the cheicest cuts of meat with him, leaving all the dead weight of bones behind. The dense vegetation of the jungle terminated at the foot of the western slope, growing less and less abundant as he neared the summit beyond which was a sparse growth of sickly scrub and sunburned grasses, with here and there a gnarled and hardy tree that had withstood the vickssitudes of an almost waterless existence.

less existence.

From the summit of the hills Targan's keen eyes searched the arid landscape before him. In the distance he discerned the ragged tortuous lines that marked the winding mrse of the hideous gorges which cored the broad plain at intervals the terrible gorges that had so early claimed his life in punishment or his temerity in attempting to inthe sanctity of their ancient solitude.

For two days Tarzan sought futilefor some clue to the whereabouts f the machine or its occupants. He ached portions of his kills at differ-in the full of his strength. "But still Ska, the vulture, circled and soared above him, and the ape-man, notwithstanding his boasts, feit a shudder of apprehension. Through his brain ran a persistent and doleful chant to which he involuntarily set two words, repeated over and over again in horrible monotony: "Ska knows!" until, shaking himself, in anger, he picked up a rock and hurled it at the grim scavenger.

Lowering himself over the precipitous side of the gorge Tarzan half clambered and half slid to the sandy floor beneath. He had come upon the rift at almost the exact spot at which he had clambered from it weeks before and there he way, the sand the distance."

The Englishman shook his head. "It is the end of the first leg, anyway," he replied.

"But you can't hope to make repairs here," she said dubiously.

"No." he said, "not if they amount to anything, but I may be able to patch it up. I will have to look her over a bit first. Let us hope there is nothing serious. It's a long, long way to the Tanga railway."

"We would not get far." said the girl, a slight note of hopelesaness in her tone. "Entirely unarmed as we are, it would be little less than a miracle if we covered even a small fraction of the distance."

rift at almost the exact spot at which he had clambered from it weeks behe had clambered from it weeks be-fore, and there he saw, just as he had left it, just, doubtless, as it had lain for centuries, the mighty skeleton that the beggars didn't discover," and.

is the stakes and as he did so was rather aurorised to the steep walls of the narrow was rather aurorised to the stakes and as he did so was rather aurorised.

the jungle wilderness where in an automatic. I have used them myself."

Bertha Kircher's life had so often myself." "Oh, of course," he said ironically, been upon the point of extinction, and sped toward the east, the girl who knows but we might meet an felt a sudden contraction of the elephant here in the desert."

The girl saw that he was hurt and The girl saw that he was hurt and muscles of her throat. She tried that such was the fact, for she was called at reassuring behind something beside the dangers that had menaced heraunique figure that had entered her life, and for which she felt an unsan to is the programment of the progra accountable attraction.

Before her in the pilot's seat sat an English officer and gentleman who, she knew, loved her, and yet she dared to feel regret in his com-she dared to feel regret in his company at leaving the stamping ground of a wild beast!

Lieut. Smith-Oldwick, on his part.

Weeks."

What do you mean "he exclaimed: "what do you mean by that?" You are not dying. There is nothing the rate with you."

"Oh, not that," she said: "I did not mean that. What I mean is that at the moment the black Sergeant, I sanga, and his renegade German had said that she was a German and brooken the inland my death warrant.

an open book to the ape-datied by the spoordess trail of the airship. Of what good were eyes, or ears, or the sense of smell in following a thing sense of smell in following a thing wanth had lain through the whote path had lain through the whitting air thousands of feet above shifting air thousands of fee momentary unconsciousness the ship urned earthward. Only for an instant was the pilot inconscious, but that instant almost proved their undoing. When he awoke and his passenger.

and his passenger.
Fortunately neither of them was injured, but their condition seemed indeed a hopeless one. It was a grave question as to whether the man could

CHAPTER XVI.

8 THE British plane piloted by Lieut, Harold Percy Smith-Oldwick rose above Smith-Oldwick rose above the property and the girl, "or the thing did not jam, Really, I haven't much faith not jam, Really, Really, Really, Really, Really, Really, Reall an express rifle would be better, for was not there. It seemed atrange to her service or protection, and that it ber that she should feel regret in was through no fault of his that he was no illy armed. Doubtless, too, he realized as well as she the futility of perils, and yet it was plain to het his weapon, and that he had only called attention to it in the hope o cassuring her and lessening her "Forgive me," she said. "I did not mean to be nasty, but this accident is the proverbial last straw. It seems to me that I have borne all that I can. Though I was willing to give my life in the service of my country. I did not imagine that my death agonies would be so long drawn out, for I realize now had made against this woman. He had said that she was a German and spy, and from the heights of bliss the English officer was occasionally plunged to the depths of despair in contemplation of the inevitable, were the ape-man's charges to prove true. He found himself torn between sentiments of love and honor. On the one we country, and though it was not that I felt much as you must have; that however fulle our efforts here might be, it would be infinitely as fatal to attempt to retrace our way to the jungle we just left or to go on toward the coast. You know and I know that we could not reach the Tanga railway on foot. We should die of thirst and starvation before we had covered half the distance and to the jungle we just left or to go on toward their undoing. When he awoke to a realization of their peril it was also to discover that his motor had stalled. The plane had attained frightful momentum, and the ground seemed too close for him to hope to flatten out in time to make a safe landing. Directly beneath him was a deep rift in the plateau, a narrow gorge, the bottom of which appeared comparatively level and sand covered. In the brief instant in which he must reach a decision, the safest plan seemed to attempt a landing in the gorge, and this he did, but not without considerable damage to the plane and a severe shaking-up for himself and his passenger.

up like that. What I meant was that it was useless to attempt to reach either of the places where we know there is food and water in abundance. claims to have authority to confirm the report that British shipowners have offered to sell to German shipowners have offered to sell to German shipowners or the German Government a large part of the toning surrendered as compensation for the Scape Flow sinkings. Immediately after the conclusion of the shipping deal British evertures, according to the correspondent, were made through Count Luconadent, were made through Count Luconadent was a grave of the German Luconade and Continue the guestion as to whether the man could continue the cached portions of his kills at difference repair his plane and continue the fourney, and it seemed equally questionable as to their ability either to from the coast or return of his voice. But there was before the was to be country to the coast or return of his voice. But there was better the man could the fourney, and it seemed equally questionable as to their ability either to proceed on foot to the coast or return of his voice. But there was better was to the coast or return of his voice. But there was better the man could the fourney, and it seemed equally questionable as to their ability either to proceed on foot to the coast or return of his voice. But there was to be control that they could not hope to cross the fourney was a return of the was confident was a return so we must strike out in a new direc-tion. Somewhere there may be water in this wilderness, and if there is the best chance of our finding it would

Convenient to Subways and Elevated Lines or 14th St. Cresstown-A step from Hudson Tube FRANK & PINERA CO., Inc. EXPORTERS

14th Street Just West of Sixth Avenue